Liberia Lutherans Distribute Medical Supplies to Hospitals

The following is an email from the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Liberia.

Dear Friends in Jesus,

As we draw nearer and closer to His Birth, the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Liberia continues to share His love by distributing OGT medical supplies with hospitals and clinics across Liberia. Already, we have concluded medical relief to the below listed hospitals:

1. Jackson F. Doe Hospital in Nimba County, Liberia (this hospital serves thousands of Liberians outside of Monrovia)

2. Redemption Hospital (a government hospital serving thousands in the east of Monrovia)

3. Barbara Ann Mini-Hospital (a Catholic hospital also serving the public in a strategic area of Monrovia)

We plan to reach out to several others. We are also distributing Sunday School

JESUS IS BORN IN THIS GOVERNMENT
OWNED HOSPITAL!

teaching materials and books to churches and schools.

Thank God for the Orphan Grain Train (OGT) for shipping us medical, and books and supplies.

Sharing the love of Christ in the season of His birth!

What was most touching was the chapel service held at the Jackson F. Doe government hospital during the presentation of the medical items. And the Christian chapel service was held by the hospital. Jesus is born in this government owned hospital!

Watch out for more update from Liberia.

WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

2011

If you would like to make a charitable donation to Orphan Grain Train for 2011, you can still make a donation online at our website, www.ogt.org. It will be credited to the 2011 tax year if done by December 31, 2011.

We wish you God's richest blessings in the new year
