Sectional Descriptions

Katrina Relief and Recovery, Rev. Dave Buss and Mr. Kurt Jostes

Thanks to Orphan Grain Train and thousands of volunteers, Katrina relief and recovery work continues on the Gulf Coast at Camp Biloxi and Camp Restore in New Orleans. This sectional explores deeper into the complexities of the Katrina recovery, volunteer camp operations, and why so many people call the Gulf Coast home, with substantial question-and-answer opportunities.

Greensburg tornado recovery story, Mr. Matt Deighton

This sectional adds to Matt's morning presentation with opportunity for more questions and answers.

Sorting and Packing for Foreign Shipments, Bob and Edie Feddern

This is an important session for Orphan Grain Train warehouse and work-center volunteers. Shipping requirements by governments around the world continue to become more stringent. This session helps you learn how to make sure your inventory items are prepared for the strictest guidelines.

Orphan Grain Train Division treasurers workshop, Mrs. Jane Fler and Mrs. Susie Lutz

Highly recommended step-by-step "how to" for all Orphan Grain Train division treasurers and chairmen.

Preparing to Meet the Challenge! Rev. Glenn Merritt

The material in this sectional covers the financial, material, and people challenges that congregations and organizations face as they respond to disasters in a coordinated and comprehensive way. This sectional covers the challenges of working together in an ever-complex society to provide maximum disaster relief with minimal resources.
