Many Gifts Shared

Norfolk warehouse container filled with aid to Republic of Georgia was distributed to many, many families in need. Some of the children had fun with the OGT boxes. Many blessings!

Many Came to Serve!

Despite a heat index nearing 100 degrees, 28 Mid-Atlantic Branch volunteers turned out to load a container and to sort and pack, many as first-time visitors to the warehouse. The large number of volunteers allowed us to rotate crews in and out of the container and finish the job in under 3 hours. The Lord provides! The container filled with medical equipment, bikes, school supplies, toys and other aid is headed to Psichotery Rehabilitation Center Gabrielius in Lithuania.

Weekly Devotion

When (Jesus) had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we've worked hard all night and haven't caught anything. But because You say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' feet and said, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" For he & all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, & so were James & John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will catch men." So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed Him. (Luke 5:4-11) But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy. (1 Peter 2:9-10)

Fishing: Fishing is a favorite hobby of mine. I know what it's like to catch more fish than you were expecting. All too often, however, I have done more fishing than catching. That's why I'm a little jealous of Peter and his "partners." Not only did they catch so many fish that their nets began to break and that their boats began to sink, it also sounds like Jesus called them to fish during the heat of day, and to “put out into deep water.” While I’m not an expert on fishing, I can tell you from experience that fishing in deep water during the heat of the day is not a recipe for success. Although Peter is skeptical, he says to Jesus, “Because You say so, I will let down the nets.” He is overwhelmed with the results. His response? He “fell at Jesus’ knees and said, ‘Go away from Me, Lord; I am a sinful man!’” Not only does Jesus tell Peter that he need not be afraid, He also tells him that “from now on you will catch men.” He charges us with the same responsibility. Peter, writing years later in his first epistle, says, “But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light.” We have been chosen to fish, to “catch men”—to catch men and women and children.

Prayer: Bless us, Jesus, to follow Your command to fish for men. Amen.
